MEMO

TO: Board of Finance

FROM: Stephanie Hanker, Human Resources Generalist
Susan Leonard, Human Resources Director

DATE: June 7, 2012

RE: Recommendation – Step placement for Michael Kanarick, Assistant to the Mayor for Operations & Communications

---

I recommend that Michael Kanarick, incumbent for the position of Assistant to the Mayor for Operations & Communications, is placed at step 10 of Grade 20 (Step 1 - $57305.03, Step 10 - $65611.39 annually) in the Willis Classification System pursuant to Section 5.4 Compensation Plan, subsection A. Placement, of the City of Burlington Comprehensive Personnel Policy Manual. We would ask the Board to factor in his prior relevant experience, knowledge, and specific job duties that have been in several political settings. The minimum qualifications for the position require a minimum of two (2) years' experience in the public sector or with a non-profit organization in addition to a Bachelors degree or equivalent. Mr. Kanarick possesses a total of 12 years 2 months of extensive experience in non-profit and government agencies. In addition to his experience Mr. Kanarick holds a Bachelors Degree in Arts in Government, as well as a Juris Doctor from the Fordham University School of Law. Mr. Kanarick has considerable experience directly related to this position and brings a wealth of knowledge above and beyond the minimum qualifications. Upon approval of this request, this would be submitted for City Council approval per the City of Burlington Personnel Policy Section 5.4 Compensation Plan, subsection A. Placement.

Thank you for your consideration.
